S. H. PARVIN, Advertising and Collecting Agent, No. 80 West Fourth St., is our agent in Cincinnati.

JACOB HERMAN, Esq., is our agent for this county.

To Contributors.

As our design is to make our paper one that will be of interest to all engaged in the different departments of active industry in every part of the county, we respectfully solicit the co-operation of our intelligent citizens throughout its limits. And being especially desirous of promoting the farming interests of Dubois, items in any department of agriculture are particularly solicited. Please send us all the news, incidents, general information, and mineral discoveries in your respective neighborhoods.

Job Printing.

We are prepared to give prompt attention to all kinds of Job or Book printing. Any description of blanks, receipts, bill heads, store, stallion or jack bills can be forthcoming on the shortest notice, in the most approved style, and on reasonable terms.

GRATIS NOTICES.—We publish notices of marriages, deaths, &c., gratis, and would like to record all which occur in the county. Ministers, or others, who officiate on such occasions, will confer a favor by sending us a notice immediately.

AN OFFER.

Any person sending us five new subscribers, and the money, will receive a copy of the Courier for one year, as a present.

Married.

On Thursday, Dec. 2, at the residence of the bride's mother, in this place, by Rev. A. J. Strain, Mr. Wm. J. Hays, of Haysville, and Miss LUCINDA F. KERR.

Lucinda, may your moments run
Like a billow, bright and fair,
Like a streamlet in the sun,
Free from sorrow, free from care.

Happy pair, may you share
Life's delicious, choicest pleasures,
See the loves and the doves
Bringing bliss in boundless measure.

May no shade of cloud or care
Cast a gloom o'er gladness—
May no sorrow bring its sorrow,
No sun set in sadness—
But may peace rise with the sun,
Not depart when day is done.

And at last may time, the rover,
Bring you to the tomb in peace,
Bear you, when long life is over,
To the land where joys never cease.

At the same place, on the morning of the same day, by Rev. A. J. Strain, Mr. R. L. FAY'S SMITH, Esq., Editor of the Jasper Courier, and Miss S. E. POLSON, daughter of Dr. John Polson, late of this county.

The choir which followed the above weddings did great credit to the performers, and afforded the company serenaded considerable amusement. Some of the parties, however, were rather seriously affected during the evening, and it is thought may not soon recover. The gathering at Mrs. Kerr's was a very pleasant one, embracing a larger number of American ladies than we have seen at a party for some time, and the evening stole away so merrily that the "waxen" hours came upon them unawares before they dispersed. When another as pleasant a party is held in this vicinity, "may we be there to see."

On Nov. 11th by Rev. A. J. Strain, Mr. THOMAS DILLER to Miss LUCINDA GREEN.

On Nov. 28th, by the same, Mr. JOHN ANDERSON, Jr., to Miss TRAILOR, of Pike Co.

On Nov. 25th, by the same, Mr. JOHN HARRIS to Miss MARY J. MILLER.

DR. MANN'S

AGUE BALSAM.

Unrivalled in the History of Medicine.

This Balsam, that has been so extensively sold and met with such unrivalled success for the past five years, and brought health and happiness to many families throughout the Western Country, is the result of years of study and experiment, by the proprietors of this wonderful compound; and we are happy to state to the world that the object sought for has been gained, which is found in the numerous evidences in favor of this remedy. This Balsam is only recommended for one class of diseases, viz: those produced by malarial, and enters directly into the circulation, and thereby counteracts the poison of malarial in the system; and as a tonic it is particularly recommended. Now for a few evidences:

Oberlin, Ohio, June 1st, 1858.
Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents—Having had occasion to use some of your Ague Balsam in my family, I find it the most efficient and prompt remedial agent for the certain cure of ague ever used, and as a strengthening tonic I think it has no equal.

Your obedient servant, S. HENRY.
Olney, Ill. S. pt. 20, 1857.

Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents—Your Ague Balsam is the only remedy that seems to meet the wants of the people of this locality. We have upon our shelves all the popular remedies of the day for the cure of intermittents, but Dr. Mann's Balsam sells in preference to all others, from the simple fact it cures. It is destined to excel all other remedies ever offered.

Truly Yours, G. W. HAYNE.
Cairo, Ill. May 15, 1858.

Dr. Mann & Co., Galion, Ohio—Gents—Your Ague Balsam is the peoples' own remedy, in this part of the country, for the cure of ague and fever. We have never known it to fail in any case when properly used. It is looked upon as a perfect antidote to malarious diseases.

Very truly Yours,
REED & PETTIGREW.

Saint Louis, June 1st, 1858.
Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—We find the demand for Dr. Mann's Ague Balsam daily increasing, and the great demand for it is a sufficient evidence of its great merit. In all places in our travels we find the universal opinion of those selling it, and more particularly those using it, to be, that it has no equal in proprietary remedies, and that it is a certain specific in a fact that cannot be disputed.

Truly Yours, O. J. WOOD & CO.
S. K. MANN & CO., Proprietors,
Galion, Ohio. Sold by all good Druggists.

State of Indiana, Dubois County, ss:
NOTICE is hereby given that Jared Nichols, administrator of the estate of Henry Pillan, dec'd, has filed his petition to sell the real estate of said decedent, viz: the half of the south-west quarter of section 28, town 2, south of range 5 west, his personal property being insufficient to pay his debts, and that said petition will be heard at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas of said county.

B. B. EDMONSTON,

JENKINS & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS

IN TEAS ONLY,

PHILADELPHIA.

THE new crop of Tea is now arriving, and selling much below the high rates of the past year; the present therefore opens with the pleasing prospect of our again being able to furnish as good an article for the price, as formerly. We also take pleasure in announcing that we have concluded to extend the time on small bills, heretofore sold on two and three months to three and four months credit.

Thousands of Greeners and general Storekeepers now sell Teas in our Metallic Packages, and the number is constantly increasing, notwithstanding the strong prejudice that once existed against teas put up in this convenient form. This unexampled success is the legitimate result of a business uniformly done, for a long term of years upon just and fair principles, and especially with an eye to that wholesome one of "SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS."

Teas being a perishable article, dealers are recommended to order small and frequent bills.

Those who still prefer the old way, are furnished with teas in the original half-chests, at three cents per lb. less than in Metallic Packages.

C. D. Harbutt is no longer in our employ as Traveling Agent—his place being supplied by another.
